

LARGEO is one of the leaders in advanced marine data processing including processing of big-scale 3D offshore seismic projects. We apply GXT processing software built around Landmark's ProMAX® processing system. GXT has enhanced the database-related tools in improving its functionality and allowing it to better accommodate large projects.

{vmodule 123}